In explaining the present situation, Mr. Kohler described the plan of presentation of the proposed note to the Soviet Union. The French had not agreed to the desirability of this and State felt now that the note should go to the FRG in response to the Chancellor's information on his meeting with Soviet Ambassador Gromyko. This is the only concrete communication available to the Western Allies giving Soviet intentions. The French (and the British incline to this) feel we should not approach the USSR on the basis of speeches or news reports. State will approach the two Allies on the new plan at once.

It was agreed to meet again at 1000 on Tuesday, 25 November 1958.
